

Our Community
Working Together

Healthy Here

An initiative of the Bernalillo County Community Health Council, funded through the Center for Disease Control and Prevention's REACH (Racial and Ethnic Approaches to Community Health) and managed by Presbyterian Healthcare Services.

bcheathcouncil.org

NM Hospital Association

"Working with others to improve the health status of the citizens of New Mexico." A membership organization for health care providers and health groups.

nmhawebste@nmhsc.com
(505) 343-0010

Our Community Working Together

NM Perinatal Collaborative

Nonprofit organization developed by a coalition of stakeholders with the goal of improving the health of NM women and children. We aim to identify best practices in the care of women and children and share them with hospitals around the state.

(505) 470-8343
nmperinatalcollaborative.com

March of Dimes Maternal and Child Health Committee

This state-wide committee provides leadership on a multi-year strategic mission plan, sets priorities, fosters meaningful partnerships and works collaboratively with other stakeholders.

egamelsky@marchofdimes.org

Bernalillo County Opioid Accountability Initiative

Collective impact strategy to align activities of nonprofit, government, business and community leaders to strengthen prevention, treatment, harm reduction and justice systems in Bernalillo County to reduce opioid deaths.

bill-wiese@comcast.net
hsilver30@comcast.net

NM Breast Feeding Task Force

A coalition that promotes breastfeeding and supports mothers, families, and communities by working to bridge the gap in breastfeeding disparities. We are committed to ensuring all families have the support they need to reach their breastfeeding goals.

craepadilla@gmail.com
breastfeedingnewmexico.org/

NM Coalition Against Domestic Violence

NMCADV works to achieve a coordinated local, regional, and statewide response to DV.

The Coalition serves as a clearinghouse for information and referrals. We collaborate with agencies and advocates in program development, public policy, education and funding proposals.

www.nmcadv.org

South Valley Partnership

A group of community members, community based organizations, health care providers & educators working together to amplify their ability to improve health in the South Valley.

<http://www.fcch.com>

Our Community Working Together

Child Abuse Liaison through APD

This individual complements efforts to establish a child abuse prevention task force and provide enhanced communication between the police and other child protective service agencies.

(505) 924-6040
ljchavez@cabq.gov

NM Child Abuse Prevention Partnership

NMCAPP is a consortium of stakeholders throughout the state, each with their own mission relating to child abuse prevention coming together to eliminate child abuse.

NMCAPP@salud.unm.edu
(505) 272-5355

South Valley Early Childhood Group

This group brings together over 100 organizations and individuals all working to ensure that ALL South Valley children are born healthy, are safe and nurtured in their families, and have all the opportunities and support they need to learn and thrive.

judy.baca@state.nm.us

Grandparents Raising Grandchildren Community Alliance

Membership and support group open to all grandparents who are raising grandchildren.

(505) 255-8740

International District Healthy Communities Coalition

The International District Healthy Communities Coalition believes that health begins where we live, learn, work, play, and love.

ecardiel@bernco.gov

Our Community Working Together

Global 505

A coalition of organizations serving Albuquerque's immigrant and refugee communities.

lglobe.wix.com/global505

Bernalillo Home Visiting Work Group

Convenes community stakeholders to develop a coordinated, unified plan for implementation of voluntary (prenatal to three) home visitation services in Albuquerque.

csanchezpeissler@salud.unm.edu
(505) 225-9153

Albuquerque Early Childhood Collaborative

The Albuquerque Early Childhood Collaborative, hosted by Albuquerque Public Schools, invites all members of Albuquerque's Early Childhood community to join in the monthly networking meetings.

hvaughn@aps.edu
(505) 880-8249 ext. 159

NM Family Infant Toddler Program- Interagency Coordinating Council

The FIT-ICC advises and assists the Department of Health in the administration of a statewide system of early intervention through the Family Infant Toddler (FIT) Program.

nmhealth.org

Our Community Working Together

Cariño Toy Lending Library

The library offers thousands of educational toys, games, materials, videos, books and other resources for check out at no cost, primarily for early childhood educators and families who have young children.

(505) 224-5017

Early Childhood Action Network

A network of early childhood champions and stakeholders who work to develop strategies and actions to improve the well being of New Mexico's young children and their families.

www.ecan.nm@gmail.com
www.earlychildhoodnm.com

South West Consortium of Indian Head Start Programs, Inc

Native American Head Start Programs working together to build strength through diversity.

Southwestconsortium.org
(405) 360-2919

Greater Albuquerque Family Child Care Associations

Promotes the development of professionalism within the family child care environment as well as personal growth of the membership, though support, networking, trainings, and fellowship.

www.gafcca.org
(505) 319-2951

EPICS

Advocacy for Native American parents with children with disabilities.

Who Did We Miss?

What other early childhood initiatives, collaborations, associations, networks, coalitions and groups are working together in our community?

Early Childhood Accountability Partnership

Ensuring ALL Bernalillo County children are ready for and succeed in school

Facebook@bc.ecap
Twitter/ECAPMG
missiongraduatenm.org/ecap
Tracy.McDaniel@uwcnm.org

KORIMI

Leaders for the community focus in Early Education and families

CooperativaKorimi@outlook.com

Norma Dorada 410-4565
Lucila Lozoya 315-6737

Our Community Working Together

B4-3 Network

Collaboration of 4 FIT agencies serving 4 counties.

Randi Malach
Randim@abrazosnm.org
404-8514

NM Public Health Assoc. (NMPHA)

State affiliate of American Public Health Assoc (APHA) committed to improving conditions for health for all people in NM. Supports people working in public health (defined broadly

www.nmpaha.org

Tracy McDaniel
Marsha McMurray-Avila

Bernalillo County Community Health Council

Multi-sector or county-wide coalition of organizations/individuals committed to improving community health (defined broadly) convener and hub for assessment planning.

Marsha McMurray-Avila
mcavila.bcchc@comcast.net

SHARENM.org

Sharing info about resources for NM

wendy@sharenm.org