

New Mexico's Legislative Website
Updated December, 2020

Because of the elections many of the member and committee assignments will not be current. The Legislative Council Services will update the members as soon as the election results are certified. The Committee assignments and leadership are not determined until the start of the session.

Home Page: <http://www.nmlegis.gov>

Find Your Leg.: http://www.nmlegis.gov/lcs/legislator_search.aspx
Gives you many search options

Bill Finder: http://www.nmlegis.gov/lcs/billfinder/bill_finder.aspx
Gives you various ways of finding legislation

My Roundhouse: <http://www.nmlegis.gov/lcs/roundhouse/>
This site allows you to register and receive updates on specific legislation.

Bill Locator: http://www.nmlegis.gov/lcs/session_locator.aspx
Click on the relevant session and it will give you a numerical listing of the legislation. House bills first and then the Senate bills

Committees: http://www.nmlegis.gov/lcs/committees_standing.aspx
This is a list of the Committees that meet during the Legislative Session. They are live links and will show the members & usual meeting times

Accessing Meetings: The “What’s Happening” tab will let you know what meetings are going on and how to access them electronically. Click on the “html” versions to get “live” links. The “Webcast” button will let you access any meeting that is underway.

Interim Committees: http://www.nmlegis.gov/lcs/committees_interim.aspx
These are Committees that meet in-between sessions. Much of the preliminary work is done in these Committees

Abbreviations: http://www.nmlegis.gov/lcs/action_abbreviations.aspx
You might want to print this out for reference since they are used throughout

We encourage you to go to the home page and explore the site. The Legislative Council Service does an excellent job of providing citizens with information.

League of Women Voters of New Mexico

e-mail: act@lwvnm.org Web site: www.lwvnm.org