

Eviction Prevention Program

The eviction prevention program (EPP) is federally funded through the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). The program is designed to provide emergency rental and utility assistance to income eligible households within the Albuquerque city limits. Below are the eligibility requirements for the rental assistance program:

RENTAL ASSISTANCE

- 1) Client household must reside within Albuquerque city limits.
- 2) Household income must be at or below 80% AMI for Bernalillo County.
- 3) Client households may not receive rental assistance if they are currently enrolled within one of HUD's housing/rental assistance programs such as:
 - a) Privately owned subsidized housing - HUD helps apartment owners offer reduced rents to low-income tenants.
 - b) Public Housing - affordable apartments for low-income families, the elderly and persons with disabilities.
 - c) Housing Choice Voucher Program (Section 8) - find your own place and use the voucher to pay for all or part of the rent.
- 4) Client must provide a valid US Government Issued Picture ID:
 - a) Driver's License, Visa, Passport, Military ID
- 5) Valid Lease Agreement or Rental Contract (Client must be the responsible party and currently living on the premises, not evicted)
- 6) Payment of Account: Client household must bring the account balance down to the approved amount stated by the Eviction Prevention Program to bring the account to a zero balance. The payment request will be processed contingent upon verifying that the client household has made the required payment.
- 7) Must have an Eviction Notice or a Notice of Non-payment (current month of funding).
- 8) Client must provide Proof of Income.
 - a) Must use IRS Form 1040, 1040A or IRS Form 1040EZ to verify income for each adult household member who receives income.
