

Free Tax Help!

Free tax preparation services, online or in person, are offered by non-profit organizations in New Mexico:

MyFreeTaxes.com

MyFreeTaxes.com, a partnership of United Way with H&R Block, is a free online tax preparation service. If your household earned less than $66,000 in 2018, you can e-file both your federal and state returns at no cost, even if you file in multiple states, work freelance, or earn investment income. All you need is a computer, internet access, an email account, and all of your tax documentation. Questions? Contact Kori Renwick: kori.d.renwick@irs.gov To get started, visit MyFreeTaxes.com

Tax Help New Mexico

Tax Help New Mexico is a United Way program offering free tax preparation to households who earned $54,000 per year or less in 2018 and individuals age 65 and older regardless of income. Tax preparation is first come, first served unless “appointment only” is noted, so it is best to arrive early in the day. ### AARP Foundation Tax-Aide

AARP has trained volunteers offering free tax preparation for “low- to moderate-income taxpayers – “especially those 50 and older” who can’t afford a tax preparation service. Appointments are suggested, and are required at some sites. See additional information below. Check the website - https://www.aarp.org/money/taxes/aarp\_taxaide - for required documentation and to locate a site near you.

Native American Tax Assistance (NATA)

This innovative project brings tax preparation services directly to the Native Americans. NATA will visit each chapter house on the Navajo Reservation and prepare the tax returns for Native American taxpayers free of charge. NATA’s management and volunteers are committed to treating all Native Americans with the respect that they deserve. Call (941) 928-2377 to find site locations, dates, and hours.
